THE LEXINGTON CHILDREN'S THEATER
PRESENTS
KATERINA THE CLEVER

Friday, December 12 • 9:30 a.m.

Russia's beloved folktale about a clever young peasant girl who outwits her ruler is brought to life by this acclaimed children's theater company. With the help of a goat – her best friend and loyal sidekick – this unassuming heroine miraculously answers four riddles posed to her by the Tsar, earning his respect and the position of chief advisor. A wonderful story that will inspire students to believe in themselves.

Thursday, March 5
9:30 & 11:00 a.m.

Aspectacle unlike anything you've ever seen, seven traditional Irish artists will explode on the Arts Center stage in a heart-pounding performance of Irish music and dance. Over the course of the show, the group will use more than 20 instruments to fuse diverse musical genres from North American bluegrass to jazz to Eastern European Gypsy. A thoroughly entertaining and educational program that demonstrates the cultural influences of Irish rhythms in today's American song.
